

Windrush Nursery School

0043

A single storey addition to Windrush Primary School in South East London, built within the existing school playground. The new nursery building accommodates large group rooms, several storage rooms, a cloakroom, office and kitchen, quiet room, nursery toilets and different types of play areas, including covered outdoor play areas which make use of its playground setting.

SERVICES

structural design of timber superstructure supply and installation of timber superstructure

MATERIALS

crosslam

INSTALLATION

3 weeks

GIFA

200m²

STORED CARBON

84 tonnes CO₂

CLIENT

London Borough of Greenwich

ARCHITECT

Jonathan Louth Architects

TIMBER ENGINEER

CarbonEng

MAIN CONTRACTOR

Thomas Sinden Construction

PROJECT VALUE

£ 525,000

COMPLETION

2004

©Jonathan Louth

©Jonathan Louth